

1. The first group of respondents (10%) was made up of 100% females, 100% of whom were married. The majority of this group (70%) was aged 40-49 years, 10% were aged 30-39 years, and 20% were aged 50-59 years. The majority of this group (70%) was employed full-time, 10% were employed part-time, and 20% were unemployed. The majority of this group (70%) was employed in the health care sector, 10% were employed in the education sector, and 20% were employed in the retail sector. The majority of this group (70%) was employed in a managerial position, 10% were employed in a professional position, and 20% were employed in a support position. The majority of this group (70%) was employed in a permanent position, 10% were employed in a casual position, and 20% were employed in a part-time position. The majority of this group (70%) was employed in a full-time position, 10% were employed in a part-time position, and 20% were employed in a casual position. The majority of this group (70%) was employed in a full-time position, 10% were employed in a part-time position, and 20% were employed in a casual position.

Patrick F. Brinson

3752

[illegible]

INTERFERENCE SEARCHED
Class	Subclass	Date	Examiner

[illegible]